

→ Financing your studies in Germany

1) General Requirements

- ✓ You must be permanently residing in Germany or have a permanent residence permit
- ✓ You must be under 30 years of age at the start of your Bachelor programme
- ✓ You must be younger than 35 years of age when you start your Master programme

2) What is supported?

- ✓ Your first full-time course of study
- ✓ Master's programmes may be eligible for funding if they are consecutive

3) How is the amount of BAföG funding determined?

- ✓ How much BAföG is paid depends on 3 factors:
 - The student's income
 - The student's assets
 - Income of parents or spouse/life partner
- ✓ As a result, not every student receives BAföG funding
- ✓ There is no maximum limit on income or assets, but it is determined individually

4) How high is the grant?

- ✓ The maximum rate is:
 - below 25 years 752€ per month
 - between 25 and 29 years 861€ per month
 - from 30 years 941€ per month
- ✓ Parents' income can reduce the grant rate
- ✓ Students with children, receive an additional allowance of 150€ per month
- ✓ Surcharges of 84€ for health insurance and 25€ for long-term care insurance

5) Good to know!

- ✓ BAföG is not a scholarship and must be reimbursed after you finish your studies
- ✓ If you change your course of study, you must justify this to the BAföG office
- ✓ The duration of BAföG support depends on the standard period of study of your respective degree programme
