Organisational preparation (application, consultation with host institution, etc.):

Everything was very well organised. My application to teach there was quickly responded to and following on from this, communication was excellent in terms of both academic aspects and non-academic aspects such as accommodation

Start of the mobility (welcoming at the host institution, orientation at the host country, etc.):

We were very warmly welcomed by senior people at INSEEC and then introduced to key partners. We were assigned students to help with any issues. Lunches were arranged as a dinner was also organised to help with networking.

Course of the mobility (exchange, learning successes, cooperation talks, further procedure, etc.):

Discussion with other teachers about more exchanges of students and staff.

What are the results of my stay abroad (cooperation agreement, expansion of the internationalisation of the SRH, personal development etc.):

The stay will result in increased cooperation between the two institutions. It was helpful for me in terms of contacts and also in terms of understanding how CSR and HRM are understood in France compared to other countries.
